IN COMMAND .... GENERAL BLAMEY TO LEAD AUSTRALIAN FORCES.

As Australia sends her sons into battle .... she chooses their leader. General Blamey is inspecting the vast military camp ....at Ingleburn New South Wales. Meanwhile the first batch of the fully trained A.I.F. is marching through Sydney. Past the Statue of Remembrance .... reminder of the war that was to end all wars .... but the call came again ....and once more Australia marches.

Once before they fought for democracy .... once before there were deeds of heroism, that made the tradition of Anzac one to be jealously guarded, by the young Australians of today. You who now assume the mantle of Anzac... we greet you.
