TODAY... AT THE WORLD OF TOMORROW.

AS THE NEW YORK WORLDS FAIR GOES INTO ITS SECOND YEAR

RUSSIA TEARS DOWN HER PAVILION. THE STAINLESS STEEL STATUE OF THE WORKER....TOWERING TWO HUNDRED AND SEVENTY FEET ABOVE THE REST OF THE FAIR GROUNDIS TO BE REASSEMBLED IN MOSCOW NO LONGER WILL THE RED STAR OF COMMUNISM GLOW OVER NEW YORK.

ONLY A FEW YARDS FROM THE RUSSIAN PAVILION IS THAT OF FINLAND.

NOBODY KNOWS YET WHETHER HER EXHIBIT WILL REOPEN IN NINETEEN FORTY.

BUT POLAND HAS ALREADY ANNOUNCED THAT BECAUSE OF GERMAN AND RUSSIAN OCCUPATIONHER PAVILION WILL BE CLOSED. THE DECAPITATED STATUE STILL HOLDS ITS SYMBOL ALOFT....BUT THE WRECKERS SOON DESTROY RUSSIA'S PRIDE. WHEN THEY OPENED THE FAIR THEY CALLED IT THE WORLD OF TOMORROW....BUT IT SEEMS TO BE VERY MUCH AFFECTED BY THE WORLD OF TODAY.
