RED CROSS STEEPLECHASE AT LEOPARDSTOWN.

The Biggest crowd ever seen at an Irish Race Meeting, fills the stands at Leopardstown, to see the battle for the highest Irish turf-honour, and three thousand pounds, (or "sovs" as the race card has it) in prize money. There are twenty two starters.

He nose!

The Parade - ROYAN DANIELLI, SOUTHERN HERO, ROCKQUILLA.

The Cavalcade moves to the post, closely studied by the crowd, and distinguished visitors, including Doctor Hyde, President of Eire.

And now they're racing. A good start; but the going's heavy.

The field attacks the first jump... boldly. No casualties yet...

yes, ~~some~~ one's over. Its LE CYGNE, and Eric Foley is hurt...

a broken leg.

The field is standing up well to a gruelling test....Very few casualties so far.

Royal Danielli has gone.

Now watch KNOCKADROLEEN, JACK CHAUCER.... AND STERLING DUKE.

KNOCKADROLEEN loses precious yards on landing. JACK CHAUCER and STERLING DUKE streak away.

Its JACK CHAUCER with STERLING DUKE only two lengths behind.

Number 13 is lucky this time. A great race, by a great horse and a great Jockey. JACK CHAUCER, by the way is the horse who was bought for as a foal for £35. He wins over three thousand today... handsome profit for a handsome animal.
