

PATHE GAZETTE: 40/13.

(DUBLIN REEL)

BRIDGE OPENING CEREMONY

Ancient Tien Tsin in North China has emerged from the floods that almost engulfed her and today is a great occasion in the history of the city. To mark the restoration the White River is opened with much pomp and ceremony and with Japanese troops in mass attendance. After the opening a gay procession through the streets with banners and dancing and all the abandon of the Orient. Tien Tsin has beaten the floods. It's a time for rejoicing.