HEROES OF FINLAND

The hearts of the world goes out to the Finns and in particular to their soldiers. After months of heroism such as the world has seldom seen, during which their gallant little army destroyed scores of thousands of a ruthless enemy, their country has been compelled to submit to humiliation under the claws of the Russian bear. When the cease fire sounded, Finland's Marshal Mannerheim told his men "I have never seen your like as warriors", simple words summing up the admiration of the world.
