

R.A.F. PLANE LOSES ITS WAY.

This British bomber landed in France, so the Pilot thought... but

What a surprise. When he asked a peasant if he was in France, he got the answer, in German, "No, this is Germany."

The frontier is twenty miles to the West. As one man, pilot and crew dashed to their plane, and took off again, to arrive safely in France a little later.

At least one war story with a smile in it.
