

5-28-40

EVACUATION DIFFICULTIES.

Following on the Government's desire that parents should decide now whether they want their children sent to safer areas (in the event of air raids) and that more householders should act as foster parents... and children already evacuated should remain where they are, the Minister of Health, Mr. Walter Elliot is having quite a busy time.