

FRENCH FISHERMEN CARRY ON.

Like our ~~px~~ brave fishermen, the French are still gleaming the sea's "silver harvest" for their meal tables, Former trawlers - Now fully armed mine sweepers, go first to sweep the fishing grounds free from Nazi mines. The sweeping apparatus is p t into the sea, and in a comparatively short time, the trawlers may safely set to work in the fishing grounds.

Now the seas are swept for fish, and soon the trawlers return to harbour... fully laden. Nazi frightfulness cannot keep the fisherfolk of the Allies from carrying on their normal tasks That catch looks very tasty.... very sweet!
