

GIRL JOCKEYS IN THRILLING RACE.

Australia's second Cavalry Division, holds a picnic Race Meeting. The Cavalry is nothing if not Gallant, so they stage a special race for the ladies. Take your seats girls....and remember to keep them. The field goes to the post, closely followed by keen students of form.

No dear... we're going this way. The Grey Horse Araunah was looking the wrong way... but his jockey spins him round and chases the field... and before long.... here comes Araunah... out in front.

Isn't that a lovely sight boys....as Araunah passes the post as easy winner... carrying twelve stone to a perfect victory Bit don't worry.... quite a lot of it is lead... and Jockeyess Doran faces the weighing machine quite cheerfully.
