

2-PSBFD0
7

NEWFOUNDLANDERS ON PARADE.

Men from the ancient Dominion of Newfoundland, are addressed by Field Marshal Lord Milne, who holds the title of Master Gunner of the Royal Artillery.

Four hundred of these young men arrived in Britain on Anzac Day. They have only had a few hours of Military training, but already they carry themselves in a way which speaks well for the future.