

BRITISH WOMEN WITH THE ARMY.

One of the first of the Franco British Medical and Surgical Units to reach the Western front is reviewed by a French General.

He is accompanied by Lady Hadfield and Mrs Spears.... who have given their names to the unit.... which is completely staffed by British women.

And a French Band plays them past.... as they Parade with French Troops. One more symbol of the friendship of Britain and France.¹