PATHE GAZETTE SPECIAL.... THE MAD DOG OF EUROPE RUNS AMUCK.

HOLLAND, BELGIUM AND LUXEMBOURG.

The mad dog is on the march again. Once more he breaks every bond of international decency. Now he has thrown off the very last shreds of honour. He brings all the horrors of total warfare, to three of the fairest and cleanest of neutrals in Western Europe. Pity the peoples of these nations....whose fair lands the Mad Dog has made his bloody battle grounds.

As far as he is concerned, its the same old story. His bombers over open towns smashing civilians, trying to cut communications... while his motorised divisions spread out like the tentacles of an octopus. But we wonder if the mad dog realises that this time there are differences. This time in Holland he faces a powerful nation. Well organised and well armed. A nation with superbly guarded frontiers.

This time he faces the flood waters of the Lowlands... as the Dykes are opened.

And in Belgium.... he must surely have heard of the spirit of the people in the last war.... that spirit is stronger today.... inspired by King Leopold. And in Holland the people are united behind their Royal family. Now there is the complete unity... Between Holland and Belgium... a Unity that brings added strength. And within half an hour of being asked for aid.... the forces of the Allies are on the move. On the home front in Britain too, there is lightning action.... on this momentous day.

Far reaching moves in the political field.

Goodbye... Mr. Chamberlain....

and thanks for all you've tried to do.

We welcome the new Prime Minister.....

Mr. Churchill.

Now at last the gloves are off. There will be no more hesitation on our part. We must return ten blows for everyone we get....

Now the allied war machine.... is rolling on... with a momentum that cannot be checked.
