

FRIGHTFULNESS FROM THE AIR.

From Paris the Capital City to the smallest village of France, over all of them, the Nazis swoop to their mass murder.

Here is a tiny village far from any military objective.

But still a target for the Huns from the air.

Here are its people who were carrying on their peaceful lives.

Do you think that France's Air Force will stand idly by in the face of Nazi Brutality? Do you think that the young men of France, in their fighter planes and bombers, will not hit back? They know the only answer that the Germans understand.
