

5-500320
PATHE GAZETTE: 40/46. (DUBLIN)

MOTOR CAR RACE IN TRIPOLI

Under a burning African sun it's almost zero hour for the exciting race of the millions. A festival for the cars that are always in a hurry. The starter gives the signal, and they're off like arrows from a bow, streamline furries reared on lightning. Watch how they eat up the miles. Soon the struggle becomes a duel between a Maserati and an Alfa Romeo. Farina is the lead, closely followed by Daramano. Like flaming meteors the cars flash past the stand and Farina has to go all out to keep Daramano off his tail. The race is a thrill from start to finish and in the End Farina wins. The daredevil drivers have had a field day.