

PATHE GAZETTE: 40/49. (DUBLIN)

INGENUITY DEFEATS INFIRMITY

Ten years ago fate dealt Roy Law of Park, New South Wales, a fateful blow. In an accident he became an helpless cripple but today Roy Law can travel all over Sidney in this unique vehicle which he designed and built for himself, and into the driver's seat he is now sitting with the help of his wife. We will let Roy Law tell you about it. SYNC. Courage at the controls with his mother and his wife as passengers. That's Roy Law. Now meet the musician. SYNC.