CANADIAN DESTROYERS.

The Dominion sends her first ships of war for the Defence of the Motherland. They are three Destroyers. Sorry I'm not allowed to name them. Aboard one of them comes Admiral Sir Martin Dunbar Nasmyth, to welcome the Canadian Officers and men. Incidentally, the Commander of another is Lieutenant Commander Horatio Nelson Lay. And if that isn't the right name... well!

We welcome these gay care-free men, from the Empire across the Atlantic. We welcome the serious purpose behind their coming. They know what they're fighting for.... we know how they'll fight.
