HARD LABOUR FOR CHARITY.

No, it isn't daylight robbery, and they're not the broker'd men.

They're respectable South Africans, doing their bit for the Mayor of Durban's War Fund. Two Firms gave suites of furniture to the fund on condition that they were carried from their show rooms.

A number of citizens volunteered, but How! it's hot work.

The ladies are helping too! But their stock's on wheels!

Perambulators with a difference.

O-Oh! Somebody's out for the count! That's what comes from carrying things too far!

Perhaps its just as well that the gifts didn't include a couple of grand pianos!
