PHYSICAL TRAINING AT WEMBLEY.

Wembley Stadium, the natural home in other years of Football Cup Finals, has an off appearance these days. Hundreds of young men, anxious to get fit for service, attend to gain and maintain fitness against the time they are called up. This 'in-out' business reminds one of the Boat Race broadcasts - only there are no 'blues' about.

No lead- swingers these - they're doing it because they like it!

They're making a good show, considering its the first day of training. And will they be glad to have a slap at Hitler's pants? They certainly will!

That's the stuff to give 'em! Keep up the good work, boys!
