

5-51800

40/60.

ROOSEVELT FOR THE THIRD TERM.

The Chicago Stadium is the setting for the Democratic Party's National Convention, assembled to nominate a candidate for the Presidency of the U.S.

Amid scenes of enthusiasm Chairman Jim Farley calls the Convention to order, and the Mayor of Chicago rises to nominate President Roosevelt for a third term.

So Roosevelt is still America's strong man.