PHYSICAL TRAINING AT WEMBLEY

Wembley Stadium, home of football cup finals has been turned into a playground of physical jerks where hundreds of young men eager to keep fit come to move with the times. It's never too late to bend. They train their minds as well as their feet, in fact they're making both ends meet. Yes, and they can do it in swing time. Keeping fit is certainly better than keeping rabbits and a nation's youth is a nation's wealth.
