

PATHE GAZETTE: 40/61. (DUBLIN REEL)

HENRY FORD JNR. WEDDING

At the Church of the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary in Southampton, Long Island, sightseers gather as Henry Ford with Mrs. Ford arrive for the wedding of his grandson, and there are hundreds of uninvited guests, some on hands and knees for the best places outside the church. Heroine was Miss Ann MacNammell whose picture makes society news in New York and Long Island. From the church the wedding party goes to the estate of the bride's parents in Southampton. 52 years after the first Henry Ford married, Henry II takes a bride. And if anyone cares to take a bridesmaid, there are plenty to choose from.