

2-247800

46/62

ROOSEVELT NOMINATED FOR THIRD TERM.

At the National Democratic convention, President Roosevelt is nominated by 946 votes. Senator Hill makes the first nomination.

Then Jim Farley (himself a candidate) supplies the highlight of the entire Convention in a spirited speech.

Prior to these momentous scenes, President Roosevelt addressed the American nation in these moving words :-

(Speech)