GALWAY RACES

It's a fine day and a really big crowd is present to see the highlight of the Galway meeting, the Galway Plate. Seventeen thoroughbreds are in the parade and everyone is closely studied by the crowd as it passes the stands for there are thousands of the world's best horse judges waiting to pick the winner. It's a fine race and they come over like swallows on the wing, there's one down, The Ripper, bad luck. Nearing the finish it's Ring of Gold leading from Sir Sen. Yes, it's Ring of Gold with Sir Sen second and Swindon Glory third. Ring of Gold at a 100-6 and that's good news for Colonel Davy whose lady leads in the winner.
