MR. VINCENT MASSEY MEETS CANADIAN AIRMEN

.....

The first Royal Canadian Air Force fighter Squadron to reach Britain, is welcomed to the old country by the Canadian High Commissioner, Mr. Vincent Massey, when he inspects men and machines now in England and ready to have a go at the enemy. The Canadian Broadcasting Authorities give the folks back home a thrill when the boys send their cheerio's through the microphone.

These fully trained pilots, ground staff and Canadian built Hurricanes have been on Coastal duties off Newfoundland and Eastern Canada since the war started, and now they're fighting-fit and ready to take the Hit out of Hitler.
