A SPOT OF BOTHER.

Turning from the war for awhile, we see the arrival at the California Zoo of a weighty lady from Darkest Africa. She sets about amusing the Welcome Committee.

But there's trouble afoot, and by heck, its here!

Mister Hippe objects to the Zoo people selecting his Missus for him.

He doesn't like the look of her anyway. And And when she invites him for a walk, well!

Hey! This is not a war film.

Mister Hippe has a black look. And the Missus doesn't like it.

Wait for it!.....Wow!
