ADDING TO THE BAG.

Two more of Georing's 'Luftwaffe' louts arrive under a military escort to join hundreds of their kindmen at any one of many internment camps in Britain.

Into a corner goes some of their equipment, including life jackets which perhaps kept them afloat in the channel - pity.

One of them comes in to have a hand wound dressed, Maybe he's glad he didn't bomb this hospital.

Judging by his expression, this Nazi Hooligan doesn't appreciate kindness. That of course, is understandable, knowing where he comes from.
