TRIPLE WEDDING.

Cupid does the hat trick at St. Peters Church, Blackpool, where the bridesmaids are so daintily alighting for the triple wedding of the Sisters Mosson. Its a big event in the annals of the Mossons, because at the same time exactly twenty six years ago, Mr. and Mrs Mosson (that's father with Joan and Katherine), also decided to "take the plunge". They are closely followed by a former Queen of the "rawlway lanes", the third sister, Elsie, escorted by her mother.

"Three little sisters....upto Cupid's tricks,
"Said" I Will" together"..... now there are six.

"Blackpool for happiness", even in war time. Three "pairs" --and three peaches".

Aa we were saying..... Oh, Sergeant! excuse me!. And what's the use.
