

2-2358/899

MISS AMERICA.

.....

Another short respite from the war! The United States always seems to be seeking something "easy on the eye" - Look 'em over, boys, look 'em over ! Just as America thinks everything stops for tea over here, over there everything seems to stop while they study curves and dimples, in their anxiety to ensure that "Miss America 1940" shall be the last word in loveliness.

Final choice falls on nineteen year old Frances Burke from Philadelphia. And Father Neptune makes it all official.

.....