MAN IN THE IRON LUNG.

Fred Snite Junior, the man in the Iron Lung sees his daughter for the first time. The little girl was born on September 22nd, weighing 8 pounds. Snite has lived in an Iron Lung for four years, being stricken with infantile paralysis or Peiping while on a world tour in 1936. He married his childhood sweetheart last year and now he's the proud father of a bonny little girl.
