RACING IN AMERICA

Yes, they are all here for the Belmont Stakes in New York and the 87 thousand dollar classic is a particular favourite with the ladies. They're Off! Here they come, fourteen two year olds charging down the course. It's a six and a half furlong scamper and King Cole the favourite is running second. Meddlesome, King Cole and New World are in front, but watch Old Boots a 6-1 chance coming up fast on the inside. Half a furlong to go and Old Boots catches up with the leaders and he passes them and with a great spurt shoots out in front and goes on to win by a couple of lengths. Well, a new star enters the winners select circle. The owner is Mrs. Roy G. Martin, lucky owner, lucky horse.
