

THE QUEEN AT FOOD CENTRES.

Food and Clothing centres in London for victims of Germany's bombing raids, are again visited by the Queen.

Wherever Her Majesty goes there is always a cheering crowd to welcome her. At this centre the Queen talks to homeless children at play. One busy group of boys and girls have made a model dairy-farm in plasticine.

A model of a place where you could once buy butter. Now its the home of the Wizard of two Ozs: (O.Z? - oh yes, OUNCES.)
