

3-58370/92

RUGBY LEAGUE FINAL.

Sydney's Cricket Ground farewells a season's football as Eastern Suburbs and Canterbury - Bankstown clash in the Rugby League final. Fast, fighting football. Here they come. There they go! (Sound) Norval to Hollingdale to Harry Pierce as Easts attack. Their powerful forwards rip through the defence in match-winning style. (CROWD)

The Eastern forwards are grandly led by footballer-policeman Ray Stehr. What a cop Cops everything (NOISE SWELLS) (REFEREE). Naughty, naughty, how could you. What's the name? Reilly? What make you Reilly? They told us you were such a shy boy. too!

With fast, clever play the Eastern Suburbs machine hits top gear again..... They'll break through! They're coming down the field - ((PANTS DOWN) - that's not all that's coming down, either (CROWD)

A passing blush - er rush. Now for a brilliant movement. Duff do Brew who misses. Watch for big Joe Pearce. One-handed he scoops up the ball, crashes through to Gallagher, and again to Brew who files through for a try that sets the seal on victory for Eastern Suburbs - Champions for 1940.