DOWN COMES A RAIDER.... BOMBS AND ALL.

A Nazi Raider brought down by Anti-Aircraft fire ploughs into two houses in Bromley, Kent, and from the wreckage of homes ~~and~~ ^a Heinkel, twenty-two unexploded bombs are brought out. The best thing we can do with those is, put the fuses back and bung 'em on Berlin.

A parachute and harness found in the debris.

Bombs are not the only things likely to destroy buildings.
When Bombers come down, it's still safer in your shelter.
