TESTING A.T.S. COOKS.

The ladies of the regiment are simply rolling in dough. At this A.T.S. Cook Training Depot, the proof of the pudding will be in the eating. (Look out Cook - the Jam's getting out of hand).

But the kitchen ranges are somewhat different from when they were girls way back home. Nevertheless the stew smells good. But maybe its soup - does you good - a bit of soup I reckon - thick or all clear.

Now comes the big moment. From puff pastry to Powder Puff, while the seconds leave the ring carrying the fruits of their labours. In the first round the food taster wades in with both hands. Its a knock out - "Just like Momma couldn't make".
