THE QUEEN RIDES IN AN ARMoured CAR.

In the middle of an Air Raid "Alert", and acting on advice, the Queen travels in an armoured car when she visits the Disabled Ex-Service Men's Industries Exhibition. A selected range of the products of most of the Industries are displayed, and Her Majesty makes a number of purchases.

A reminder that Christmas is not far off. After her visit the Queen leaves in her own car, to the sound of the "All Clear".
