

2074800

THE KING AT SOUTHAMPTON.

Once again the King shows his interest in, and sympathy for, his people "in the front line", by visiting Southampton shortly after a Nazi Blitz. The King ~~praised~~ praised the A.R.P. workers and said "it showed how valuable all the preliminary work was, when before the war, some people were saying it was just a waste of time".

Q