ITS NOT ALL WORK.

All work and no play makes Jill a dull girl, but if you think the A.T.S. lass is dull, you're wrong. Come along lassies, the Sergeants been up hours!

This is the life! Grand, healthy, and happy! Plenty of work and plenty of leisure, too! Each girl releases a soldier for other duties. Physical jerks keep them "in good form", and when it comes to meals, believe us, there are "no complaints". If a girl's out of sorts (they don't lead-swing in the A.T.S) the M.O. soon makes her O.K.

Kit inspection: Just to make sure she's got three of everything, or however many she's supposed to have. I, as a mere man, wouldn't know! And then, Parade, all as smart as their brothers in the forces.

"The smalls" are not forgotten. I hope none of them parade tomorrow in odd - - stockings! Of course there's work to be done, clerking, cooking etc, but today we're more interested in giving you a glimpse of the lighter side of life in the A.T.S. The girls are playing a big part in helping to win the war!
