YOUNGEST WOMAN BILLETING OFFICER.

Mrs. Barbara Meadows, is a young woman with plenty of "nerve". She has taken on a job which has worried seventeen men! They found that the task of billeting bombed out evacuees at Huntingdon was not easy after all the voluntary billets were filled. So, rather than use compulsion they resigned. Its a great pity that compulsion has to be used anywhere, but there it is. Anyway, Mrs. Meadows intends to see the job through. Listen to her!
