

3-10-1902

FIESTA OF FREEDOM.

In 1910, Mexico had a Revolution, and to commemorate ~~the~~ it a hundred thousand athletes of all ages give a mass display of exercises, and figure gymnastics. Attending the colourful show is the retiring President, Lazero Cardenas. With him is the United States Envoy.

Moving with Clockwork Precision, the vast assembly from a series of Mexican Maypoles.

The honoured occupant of the Presidential Box sees the final tribute, as his name is written in living letters.

Mexico's "Adios" to its departing Chief.