

5-17-40
40/103

HIS FIRST COMMAND.

Another victorious British submarine returns. While operating close to the Norwegian Coast, SUNFISH sank a heavily laden German supply ship. 29 Year Old Submarine Commander Lieutenant Colvin, fired two torpedoes which struck simultaneously. SUNFISH is his first command, and his first engagement resulted in the Nazi Cargo Vessel breaking up and sinking in a few seconds. The following day Lieutenant Colvin sighted an Oil Tanker. Two more torpedoes were fired and the Tanker was crippled. The SUNFISH boys have been having quite a war on their own!