

A.R.P. PANTO IN LONDON.

Members of Westminster A.R.P. Services are in the Pantomime front line. They are stage managing and ~~producing~~ presenting their own production of Cinderella, to help swell the Defence Workers' Rest Fund. For ~~the~~ eleven days they come off duty and change their uniforms for the costumes of the evergreen pantomime.
 In the dressing rooms, Wardens, Fire fighters and roof spotters become actors and actresses.

Perhaps she wants to be alone - so lets join the audience in the theatre, as the blues and ambers are switched on for Cinderella's entrance.

After the Ball the Baron reminds us that "What we've done before, we can always do again".
