STILL EAGER FOR A FIGHT.

41-4

Proudly bearing her battle scars, the armed merchant cruiser Carnarvon Castle arrives at Montevideo harbour for repairs. The people of Uruguay give her a great reception as she comes into dock. After a stirring fight with a disguised Nazi Raider of heavier armament, CARNARVON CASTLE severely battered her foe before putting her to flight. An irony of fate if the damage done by twenty two direct hits were repaired with armour plating taken from the wreckage of the GRAF SPEE.
