

5-802800

PRIME MINISTER INSPECTS AMERICAN MOTORISED SQUADRON.

The first American motorised Squadron of the Home Guard, (made up of Americans and Commanded by General Wade Hayes) is assembled on Horse Guards Parade for inspection by Mr. Churchill.
Recognised as a unit of the Home Guard by an Order in Council last September, the squadron consists of American business and professional men resident in London.

Equipped with high-powered camouflaged cars - it is a valuable addition to our home-defence units.

Also present is Mrs Churchill. Uncle Sam's Londoners are ~~much~~ warmly thanked by Mr. & Mrs. John Bull.