

CHILDREN CALLING HOME.

One of the broadcasts between England and the American Continent, which momentarily re-unite parents and evacuated children, is shown in these intimate studio scenes. From 3000 miles away comes the voice of the American announcer.