

008240-5

PATHE GAZETTE: 41/7. (DUBLIN)

PROFESSIONAL FOOTBALL

Chicago Bears meet Washington Redskins for the Professional Championship. So the slaughter begins. It's the Bear's ball and here goes one of them heading for a touch-down. There's going to be trouble, two out of one pack, nothing can stop him now. Bear's ball again and daddy bear's away to the left, looks mighty black for the Reds. A great effort, but it doesn't quite come off, and daddy bear goes to town. Honey for bears, and a 30 yard heave to the post that makes the grizzly score 35-0. Now the Redskins have the ball but only for a minute, the Bears get it again and they know what to do with it. Sorry, but it's the Bears again and this time they've got a side-line, it's a bumper. While they are arguing it's 49-0. Skins have it and lose it and away goes the Bears for another touch down. Redskins? No, Bears again, life's just one touch down after another. And so it goes on until the score reaches the amazing total of, well what do you think? Bears 73-0.