

CHAMPIONSHIP GOLF IN U.S.A.

Let's forget the war for a bit, and hop over to Florida for a little relaxation. Its the final for the Miami-Biltmore Women's Golf Crown, and a big gallery is there to see "fair" play. "Fair's" not the word - -its d-deuced GOOD! Betty Hicks puts a pretty one..... Oh,hard luck.

Grace Amery, the title holder, wants to keep the title, but the little ball has other ideas. And now Betty Hicks goes all out to win, dropping a twelve-footer that's a real beaut. She certainly has what it takes.

That trophy's a good start for a side-board collection! Betty's a good bet!
