GIFTS FROM AMERICAN CHILDREN.

The American Red Cross Committee ~~in~~ <sup>in</sup> Great Britain are handling thousands of parcels sent by the children of the United States for the children of the Mother Country. And Miss Mary Clare, the film and stage actress, presents the gifts to some of the youngsters. It's another strong link between two great nations.

The children's ages range from three to thirteen, and they make an amusing study in different styles of approach as they come up for their lucky parcels.

"Come along, Elsie, it's our turn. Now don't let go of me hand."

There's one for big sister... and one for baby. And all the presents have come "fousands and fousands of miles".

Now, who's going to reply for the visitors?

Thank you, cousins.... and Uncle Sam. All your little nephews and nieces send you their love.
