

ST. DAVID'S DAY.

The Feast of the Patron Saint of Wales is celebrated by the Welsh Guards in the customary manner with an inspection Parade and March past.

The important part of the ceremony is the distribution of the traditional emblem - the Leek - an unusual custom since the Welsh Guards were raised during the last war. St. David's Day is a proud occasion for these men who rank among the pick of Britain's soldiers.