FILM STARS HELP GREECE.

Hollywood holds a starr studded rally for Greek Relief. Proceedings open with the reading of a message from the new Premier of Greece I'm not going to recite a catalogue of the film stars present, you know them just as well as I do.

Then follows a procession of people, whom you'll recognise as easily as you'd know your own reflection in a mirror. Know this pair? of course you do!

A little lady who's quite grown up. (Tell your boy friend her name if he doesn't know) And if you called the next charming lady Mrs. Walter Wanger, it'd sound wrong, but you'd be right!

Finally, a pair with household names, (yes, you're right), round off the parade of Good Samaritans, appealing in the worthy cause of helping heroic Greece.
