SILVER SKATES CARNIVAL

It's roll out the barrels at a New York Silver Skates carnival and Ales Hurst, the Canadian champ, goes over the top. Now watch him go to glazes. The start of the Men's Senior Derby and they're all ace speed men. With a slick cross over, one two, one two movement, the blades flash round the bend like clock-work trains that have just been wound up. With the home straight in sight they cut the corners faster and faster. Last of thirty two laps, Mike Height and Mike Valentine are in the lead but they're getting might close, too close, and down they go. Herman Ben Hutton shoots past to win.
